Rules

All first appointments to the services and posts included in column 1 of the Schedule to these rules hereinafter referred to as the Schedule shall be made by the authority mentioned in column 2 of the Schedule.

2. Without prejudice to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, all first appointments to classes III and IV services and posts not included in column 1 of the Schedule shall be made by the head of the office in the administrative charge of the service or post concerned.

NOTE:—If any doubt arises as to who is the head of the office for the purposes of this rule, the matter shall be referred to the Chief Commissioner whose decision shall be final.

Discipline

3. The following penalties may, for good and sufficient reasons and as hereinafter provided, be imposed upon members of classes III and IV services, and holders of posts included in the Schedule namely:—

- (i) Censure.
- (ii) Withholding of increments or promotion, including stoppage at an efficiency bar.
- (iii) Reduction to a lower post or time-scale or to a lower stage in a time-scale.
- (iv) Recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to Government by negligence or breach of orders.
- (v) Suspension.
- (vi) Removal from the civil service of the State which does not disqualify from future employment.
- (vii) Dismissal from the civil service of the State which ordinarily disqualifies from future employment.

Explanation:—The termination of employment—

- (a) of a person appointed on probation during or at the end of the period of probation in accordance with the terms of the appointment and the rules governing the probationary service or

- (b) of a temporary Government servant appointed otherwise than under contract, in accordance with Rule 5 of the Central Civil Services (Temporary Service) Rules, 1949, or

- (c) of a person engaged under contract, in accordance with the terms of his contract, does not amount to removal or dismissal within the meaning of this rule.

4. Subject to the condition that no officer may be removed or dismissed by an authority subordinate to that by which he was appointed, the authorities specified in column 3 of the Schedule may impose the penalties specified in column 4 of the Schedule upon members of the services and holders of post included in the Schedule.

5. Subject to the condition that no officer may be removed or dismissed by an authority subordinate to that by which he was appointed, and without prejudice to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, the authority having power to make first appointments to the service or post in question may impose any penalty specified in rule 3 upon members of classes III and IV services and holders of posts not included in the Schedule.

6. (i) Without prejudice to the provisions of rule 55 of the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, no order imposing a penalty specified in rule 3, other than an order of suspension or an order superseding him for promotion to a higher post on the ground of his unfitness for that post or an order based on facts, which have led to his conviction on a criminal charge, shall be passed against a member of a class III or class IV services unless the officer concerned has been given an adequate opportunity of making any representation that he may desire to make and such representation, if any, has been taken into consideration before the order is passed :

Provided that the requirements of this sub-rule may, for sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, be waived where there is difficulty in observing them and they can be waived without injustice to officer concerned.

(ii) The authority imposing any penalty under these rules shall maintain a record showing :

- (a) the allegations upon which he proceeded against the officer punished.
- (b) the officer's representation, if any, and the evidence taken, if any, and
- (c) the finding and the grounds thereof.

(iii) Where it is proposed to terminate the employment of a probationer, whether during or at the end of the period of probation for any specific fault or on account of his unsuitability for the services, the probationer shall be apprised of the grounds of such proposal and given opportunity to show cause against it, before orders are passed by the authority competent to terminate the employment.

(v) Where the officer to be punished has been lent to the punishing authority :

(a) the power to remove or dismiss shall not be deemed to have been delegated to any authority and shall not be exercised by any authority other than the lending authority; the borrowing authority shall, in a case where he considers that the punishment of removal or dismissal should be imposed, complete the enquiry and revert the officer concerned to the lending authority for such action as that authority may consider necessary; and

(b) the punishing authority shall consult the lending authority before imposing any lesser penalty (except suspension) and in the case of suspension shall report forthwith to the lending authority the circumstances leading to the imposition of that penalty.

Appeals

7. Every member of services included in the Schedule shall be entitled to appeal as hereinafter provided, from an order—

- (a) imposing upon him any of the penalties specified in rule 3, or
- (b) terminating his employment under sub-rule (iii) of rule 6, or
- (c) discharging him in accordance with the terms of his contract, if he has been engaged on a contract for a fixed or for an indefinite period and has rendered under either form of contract continuous service for a period exceeding five years at the time when his services are terminated; or
- (d) reducing or withholding the maximum pension admissible to him under the rules governing the grant of pension.

8. Members of services included in the Schedule may appeal from orders passed in exercise of powers conferred by rule 4 to the authorities specified in column 5 of the schedule.

NOTE:—If, owing to the condition mentioned in rule 4, the authority ordering the removal or dismissal of an officer is higher than the authority specified in column 3 of the Schedule, then the officer shall be entitled to appeal to the authority immediately superior to the authority imposing penalty. If any doubt arises as to who that authority is, the matter shall be referred to the Chief Commissioner whose decision shall be final.

9. Members of classes III and IV services included in the Schedule and holders of posts not included in the Schedule may appeal from orders passed in exercise of powers conferred by rule 5 to the Authority immediately superior to the authority imposing the penalty.

NOTE:—If any doubt arises as to who is the immediate superior authority for the purposes of this rule, the matter shall be referred to the Chief Commissioner whose decision shall be final.

10. A member of a class III or class IV service included in the Schedule may appeal from an order of discharge of the kind referred to in rule 7(c) or from an order reducing or withholding a pension referred to in rule 7(d) to the authority to whom he would have been entitled to appeal under these rules had the order been an order of dismissal.

11. The appellate authority shall consider—

- (a) Whether the facts on which the order was based have been established,
- (b) whether the facts established afford sufficient ground for taking action,
- (c) whether reasonable opportunity was given to meet the charges and after the close of the preliminary enquiry to show against the proposed punishment; and
- (d) whether the penalty is excessive, adequate or inadequate; and after such consideration shall pass such order as it thinks proper.

12. Every person preferring an appeal shall do so separately and in his own name.

13. Every appeal preferred under these rules shall contain all material statements and arguments relied on by the appellant, shall contain no disrespectful or improper language and shall be complete in itself.

Every such appeal shall be addressed to the authority to whom the appeal is preferred through the authority from whose order the appeal is preferred, and shall be submitted through the usual official channel.

14. An appeal may be withheld by an authority not lower than the authority from whose order it is preferred, if—

- (1) it is an appeal in a case in which under these rules no appeal lies, or
- (2) it does not comply with the provisions of rule 13, or
- (3) it is not preferred within six months after the date on which the appellant was informed of the order appealed against, and no reasonable cause is shown for the delay, or
- (4) it is a repetition of a previous appeal and is made to the same appellate authority by which such appeal has been decided, and no new facts or circumstances are adduced which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case, or
- (5) it is addressed to an authority to which no appeal lies under these rules.

Provided that in every case in which an appeal is withheld, the appellant shall be informed of the fact and the reasons for it;

Provided also that an appeal withheld on account only of failure to comply with the provisions of rule 13 may be resubmitted at any time within one month of the date on which the appellant has been informed of the withholding of the appeal, and if resubmitted in a form which complies with those provisions shall not be withheld.

15. No appeal shall lie against withholding of an appeal by a competent authority.

16. A list of appeals withheld under rule 14 with the reasons for withholding them shall be forwarded quarterly by the withholding authority to the appellate authority.

17. An appellate authority may call for the records of an appeal withheld by an authority subordinate to it which under these rules may be made to it and may pass such orders thereon as it considers fit.

18. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions, the Central Government, of its own motion or otherwise or subject to its control the Chief Commissioner, of his own motion or otherwise, may call for the record of any case in which an order has been made by an authority subordinate to it or him, as the case may be, in the exercise of any power conferred on such authority by these rules, and may—

- (a) confirm, modify or reverse the order, or
- (b) direct that a further enquiry be held in the case, or
- (c) reduce or enhance the penalty imposed by the order, or
- (d) make such other order in the case, as may be deemed fit;

Provided that where it is proposed to enhance the penalty imposed by any such order, the Government servant concerned shall be given an opportunity of showing cause against the proposed enhancement.

19. Nothing in these rules shall operate to deprive any member of classes III and IV services or posts of any right of appeal which he would have had if these rules had not been made, in respect of any order made before the commencement of these rules. An appeal in respect of such an order pending on, or preferred after, such commencement shall be deemed to be an appeal under these rules, and rule 11 shall apply as if the appeal were from an order appealable under these rules.

20. These rules supersede all rules or orders heretofore in force in this behalf in any part of Kutch.

21. The General Classes Act, 1897, applies for the interpretation of these rules as it applies for the interpretation of a Central Act.

By order
